

ALQUEVA VILLAGE

 449  N 38° 12' 661" W 7° 31' 415" (dock)

This very old village was already mentioned in 1262 in the inventory of D. João Peres de Aboim's assets, the principal steward of King Afonso III. With a marked agricultural character, as can be seen in its name, the village developed around the original chapel dedicated to Saint Lourenço, a Christian martyr worshiped in Alentejo.

Besides this church, fully renovated in the 18th and 19th centuries, we also find the small chapel of S. António, an example of vernacular architecture from the late 16th century or early 17th century.
