210 N 38° 26' 015" W 7° 21' 081" (dock)

Telheiro village is a small place located at the foot of the Monsaraz hill. Its main tourist attractions is a fountain from the 18th century, the public washhouse with lovely schist slabs, the Orada Convent and its museum, as well as various megalithic monuments, proof that different cultures settled here in ancient times. Some of its remarkable monuments are: the Bulhõa menhir, the Olival da Pêga dolmens and the Xerez stone circles. The traditional manufacture of blankets and basketry are complemented by the pottery work of S. Pedro do Corval.
